

News and Views... and what have you by BOB CRAIG

If you want to be very proud of our local young people just drive out to the riding club arena and look over the new pens and barns the FFA boys have about finished. The project was done with the cooperation of the Hamlin Board of Community Development and the Hamlin schools.

The BCD and the school raised the money needed, found the materials and secured some of the help needed, but with the exception of some carpenter work and some work done with machinery, the FFA boys and their instructors, T. C. Blankinship and Milburn Wink, have done all of the work on the barns during class periods, study halls and after school.

The all steel barns and pens are something that both the boys and the town can be real proud of.

It would seem that more groups could take a lesson from these boys. You are always hearing that Hamlin needs this or that and if the people would just go to work they would more than likely have it.

The local chapter of the FFA is observing FFA Week this week and it would be a good time for the public to take an interest in what the boys are doing.

The BCD held their first meeting Tuesday morning under the new administration of Robert Fowler and it looks like the organization is getting off to a flying start. Probably the number one project the group will tackle first will be the possibility of securing a rest home here. The group is studying the operations of several rest homes in the area and hope to see some progress made in this direction in the near future.

The organization is getting back on its feet financially and with the cooperation of the people of Hamlin should have a real good year.

Writing in the Tuesday evening edition of the Abilene Reporter News, Roscoe Drummond noted that, in the present discussion of whether the armed services should be taught an intensive course in communism, felt that the biggest need is for an objective course in the nations high schools would be of much greater value.

The course or courses should be required for all students.

He notes that a special committee of the American Bar Association finds that, with rare exceptions, courses on communism in the schools are "conspicuously absent." The association is urging schools to establish up-to-date courses on communism with the goal of creating "more than an uncomfortable awareness that communism threatens freedom and our country."

The content of courses and teaching of communism should remain the responsibility of school authorities and great care should be exercised to avoid all implications of domestic politics. As the subject of communism tends to evoke extreme and emotional reactions special care must be exercised to avoid extremist influence of both the right and left.

With the continuing battle of the two systems expected to last over a great number of years it would seem a worth while subject for the local school board to investigate.

You hear every one talk about our rights and freedom but very few seem to know why we have these rights or what must be done to protect these rights. I don't believe that you can separate our economic system from any discussion of this type since this is where our basic rights come from.

COUNTY FARMERS CONTRIBUTE $4,000 IN SCREWORM FIGHT

With the screwworm eradication program now underway in Texas the interest of Jones County ranchers and farmers is picking up. Charlie Myatt, county chairman for the Southwest Animal Health Foundation project said following the statewide meeting in Austin last Friday.

Many livestock raisers in the county, both small and large, have contributed to the fund enabling Myatt to report some $4,000 in hand early this week, he said. Based on the cattle population the county should raise at least $5,000, Myatt said.

Community committees are still contacting livestock raisers, who have not contributed, however, persons who wish to support the program are requested to contact treasurer for their respective community, or leave their contribution at any bank in the county, the county chairman pointed out.

Treasurers for the various communities are: Earl Smith, Stamford; W. T. Johnson, Hamlin; Dan McLaren, Anson; and Harold Petty, Lueders.

NEARLY FINISHED—The FFA's new show barn and pens are nearing completion as the boys are finishing the fencing of the 150 foot by 50 foot plant. After the gates are built the whole structure will be painted. The Hamlin FFA boys have built the new show barns with the help of the BCD and interested citizens. The structure is valued at over $3,000 and cost around a $1,000. The barn will be used by the boys to house their projects and will be used by the Hamlin Riding Club to stable horses in during their rodeo. It is hoped that next year's county show can be held there.

BUILDING THE FENCE—The Agriculture I boys of Hamlin High School are shown working with their instructor T. C. Blankinship on one of the fences at the new FFA show barn. The boys have been working part of the time during class periods and then working during study halls and after school building the new barn and pens. Only a small amount of labor has been hired with the boys doing nearly all of the work.

72 Boys Take Part In Local FFA Program

A check this week with the Hamlin Chapter of Future Farmers of America revealed that the active group numbers 72 with 68 being enrolled in classes. This is an increase of eight boys in the active group and 10 boys in class over last year.

Future Farmers of America are being recognized this week as National FFA Week is February 16-24. The local program is under the direction of T. C. Blankinship and Milburn Wink. The Hamlin Public School system offers three years of vocational agriculture to its students.

As a part of their training program the boys take part in projects on their farms or, in

County Farm Bureau Planning Membership Drive

Farmers are currently engaged in a number of crucial legislative battles, both in Austin and Washington, and the only way they can win is by joining together to gain strength by organization, says K. G. Martin, president of the Jones County Farm Bureau. The local county Farm Bureau is staging a membership drive soon.

"Farm Bureau is the best means farmers have for effective presentation and defense of their side of issues because it is the only organization which has full time representatives both in Austin and Washington," the local farm leader said. Through this representation members are kept informed of the progress of favorable legislation and are alerted to possible efforts to pass measures harmful to them, he explained.

Current state issues in which farmers have a big stake include taxation, animal health, farm labor, and city annexation of farm and ranch properties, according to the Farm Bureau leader.

On the national level, there is a danger of development of farm programs detrimental to agriculture unless farmers succeed in making their position known, he said.

Every farmer and rancher in the county is urged to join the local organization during the forthcoming membership campaign, the county Farm Bureau leader said. Date for the local drive is March 1-3.

the case of city boys, in their yards or wherever they can accommodate them. These projects include fattening pigs, breeding beef, other beef animals, laying hens, rabbits, breeding swine, broilers, lambs cotton, breeding chickens, horses, barley and wheat.

With the boys buying and selling during the year, the local FFA boys' project are valued at $13,000 and the net value at the end of the year is estimated at $8,000.

As a part of their training, the boys entered their projects at many shows over the state including Jones County 4-H and FFA Livestock Show, Jones County Fair, West Texas Fair, Fort Worth Fat Stock Show, State Fair of Texas, Abilene Fat Stock Show, El Paso Fat Stock Show and the San Antonio Fat Stock Show.

JAYCEE QUESTIONNAIRE — PART FOUR

Many Express Need for 'Center'

(Editor's note: This is the fourth in a series of articles based on the results of the recently completed Community Survey Questionnaire circulated by the Hamlin Jaycees.)

Something for our youth seems to be the continuing cry of the citizens of Hamlin. In the Jaycee survey 156 people expressed the feeling that Hamlin needs a youth center while only 26 were opposed to one. Not only was a youth center desired but several expressed the need for a bowling lane, skating rink, miniature golf and lighted tennis courts.

Some of the opinions expressed on the need for a youth center were:

"If sponsored by church organizations."

"The value of a youth center lies in the operation."

Because there is nothing for young people to do but go to a movie or drive the streets."

"Very much, but run a high standard basis so all could feel free to attend."

"Not just to pamper the youth."

"Perhaps not advisable at the present time."

"But no honky tonks—no beer and dancing."

"If a good director is employed."

When asked if they would be willing to contribute to a book drive for our local library 124 said they would and 51 would not. One reply stated that they had been here 10 years and did not know Hamlin had a library other than the schools and wanted to know where it is and when it was open.

The closest vote in the survey was on whether a tax bond issue should be called for additional paving. The vote was 91 for it and 80 opposed. Several of those opposed to the bond issue expressed the feeling that they would be for certain streets to be paved this way but not just any street in town.

"I paid for mine, why should I pay for someone else's. It wouldn't be so bad on main arteries (ball park, etc.)."

"Take care of own paving."

"If good quality is guaranteed."

"I paid several hundred dollars for my paving."

Most of those answering the questionnaires seem to feel the need for a civic center with 126 for it and 33 against it. On calling a bond issue to build it 110 were for it and 45 opposed.

Among the views expressed were:

"Only after a youth center is built."

"Have a civic and youth center combined. One person to manage the whole organization."

"Depends on where, what for, cost, etc."

"After the town has improved."

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN —Texas newsmen quizzed seven candidates for governor at a session of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism society, and fanned early-season campaign sparks. Gov. Price Daniel took the center position, weathering attacks from nearly all the other candidates, both democratic and republican. All candidates took part except John Connally and Edwin Walker. A little fire even developed between the three republican candidates. Harry Diehl of Houston said Jack Cox of Breckenridge was "not a Republican—just a conservative candidate."

But two days later, Diehl withdrew from the race, leaving Roy Whittenburg as the only republican primary opponent for Cox.

Don Yarborough and Marshall Formby attacked the Daniel administration as "tired" and "lacking vigor." Daniel came back with a recital of his five-year accomplishments in education, industrialization and other fields. Will Wilson's approach was that Daniel's entry collapsed the Connally bandwagon by splitting Vice Pres. Lydon Johnson's organization, and that the only way to get an uncontrolled candidate was to elect Wilson.

Candidates got in more punches in answering tough questions posed by nine newsmen. All of Daniel's opponents made the Governor's unprecedented four-term try a central issue. In the course of the questions, Daniel came out for a two-term limit, but with four-year terms for governor instead of the present two.

FRIENDLESS INSECT—A big-hatted crowd of ranchers gathered at an Austin hotel to get more facts on the stockman's dream—the elimination of the screwworm.

There was no one there to defend the insect. Ranchers learned from Floridians how the state was swept free of this costly scourge by a dramatic program. Florida ranchers covered the state with sterile male screwworm flies thus wasting the female flies' single mating period. First airplane distribution of flies in South Texas started the day of the Austin meeting.

Texas stockmen are raising $3,000,000 by voluntary contributions to match an equal amount of Federal money put up by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The screwworms cost Southwestern ranchers an estimated $40,000,000 a year in losses.

LIVESTOCK RAISERS GET HELPERS—A committee of five legislators held its first meeting after hearing plans of the Southwest Animal Health Reserve Foundation. Ward, former president of Pan American College, will develop a guide for teaching these children, who form a large percentage of the enrollment in Rio Grande Valley schools.

TEACHER'S TIME TABULATED—State Board of Examiners for Teacher Education and the Texas Education Agency sent out about 80,000 questionnaires, asking how Texas educators spend their time on curricular, co-curricular and extracurricular activities.

So far, more than 20,000 answers are in. Agency researchers are anxious for the other replies. They want to feed them to computing machines.

MIGRANT STUDY SET UP—State Board of Education appointed R. P. Ward of Edinburg to head a study on the education of children of migrant parents, after Commissioner J. W. Edgar called this "one of the critical problems facing the Texas public school system."

REPUBLICANS COUNTER-CHARGED THAT democrats failed to hold primaries in 24 counties during the 1960 special election. But Johnson promised the party will "follow the law as usual" and hold primaries in all 254 counties this May.

SHORT SNORTS Governor Daniel has appointed Thomas H. Stilwell of Palestine as judge of the 3rd District Court, to succeed Judge V. M. Johnston.

A report from State Auditor C. H. Cavness showed the Board of Registration for Professional Engineers made a transfer of $225,000 to help

Purpose is to get an analysis to help the Texas Legislative Council prepare a full report on teacher certification and the status of education in Texas.

Other facets of a report to be presented to the 58th Legislature in January will include the public view of education; a history of teacher education and certification in Texas; personal characteristics and social and economic data of teachers; a look at the current class of education majors and an analysis of their college course work.

When the "portrait of a Texas teacher" is completed, educators think it will represent the most comprehensive study of public education ever undertaken in this state.

A teachers' pay survey revealed that the West Texas towns of Crane and Kermit pay the highest salaries to new teachers—$4,900 a year, and that practically all districts with 2,500 or more students pay more than the $4,014 legal minimum.

GOP PRIMARIES UNDER FIRE—State democratic committeeman Walter Sterling opened another argument in the inter-party battle when he accused republicans of dodging their responsibility by not holding a primary in every precinct in the state.

Sterling and the State Democratic Executive Committee question the legality of a republican primary nominee who has not been voted on by every republican. Executive Director Clyde Johnson said, "The republicans should not be able to avoid legal and financial responsibilities in these primary elections."

Republicans counter-charged that democrats failed to hold primaries in 24 counties during the 1960 special election. But Johnson promised the party will "follow the law as usual" and hold primaries in all 254 counties this May.

NEINDA PHILOSOPHER CLAIMS CODE OF THE OLD WEST, TV STYLE, NEEDED IN TODAY'S FOREIGN POLICY

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route 1 discusses a new frontier in foreign relations, his letter this week reveals.

I got tired of working on a solution to the farm problem the other day and just to rest my mind shifted over to working on the problem of foreign relations.

This came about because I had just read that Castro reportedly is setting up some guided missile launching sites up in the mountains over there in Cuba and they're pointed at the United States, only 90 miles away, which is just about point-blank with one of those things.

Now here's our problem: up to now in international law, whatever that is, there has been nothing wrong in guided missile launching sites. So long as Castro doesn't launch one of those missiles at us, we can't do anything. Our hands are tied. We have to sit around and wonder if or when he's going to pull the trigger.

At this very point is where some heavy thinking needs to be applied, and I have come up with a new theory of international law. Well, it's not really new, it's based on the law of the West, which 150 million Americans who watch TV Westerns are familiar with. This law says if a man starts to pull a gun on you and you beat him to the draw and shoot first, the United States Marshal's hands are tied. It was a clear case of self-defense and any Marshal or Sheriff who tried to charge you with murder would be laughed out of the West.

Now the fine point about this code is that anybody can carry a gun, it's only when he goes for it that another man is entitled to fire first if he can manage it.

This brings up my contribution to foreign policy. All the United States has to do is to decide what stage in launching a guided missile corresponds to the moment when a gunslinger makes a play for his gun. The code of the West doesn't say you have to wait till the other man fires. No sir. You have to wait only till he starts for his gun, then you can go for yours and shoot him even before he gets his out of his launching pad, I mean holster, if you're fast enough, and the law is satisfied.

Right now, not having any guided missile launching sites on this Johnson grass farm to study, I can't say exactly what point in the enterprise corresponds to the move toward a .45, but, if some expert in the State Department will figure this out, Castro may not be as happy over his launching sites as he thought he'd be and it sure will make things more comfortable. What sort of a life could anybody have led in the old west if people were entitled to go around with their guns drawn, finger on the trigger, and pointed at somebody else? If you can't legitimately defend yourself before that point, you ain't got much chance.

This is a point in Foreign Policy the experts ought to be working on a lot harder. Yours faithfully, J. A.

WHAT? BUILD A PICKUP! TRUCK SPECIALLY FOR TEXAS?

YES SIR—THE '62 FORD!

IT STARTED IN TEXAS—when Ford engineers came here to track down exactly what Texans need in a pickup. They drove Texas roads . . . talked to Texas truck owners . . . and produced a truck that fits Texas to a "T." Drive the '62 Ford pickup and you'll agree!

The wheelbase is long—114 easy-riding inches (122 for 8-foot bodies). There's little chance of bumper-scraps on inclines because of the short front overhang—and more ride stability. The ride is smooth as a Texas drawl. To the long wheelbase, add easy springing—and the frame is strong. It's built to stand the twisting of high-crowned Texas roads.

The savings are BIG—and they start right today! You save now on Ford's pickup prices—the lowest of any leading make.* And you save from now on! Save on gas with Ford's modern engines, Six and V-8. Save on oil—go 4,000 miles between oil changes, thanks to Ford's Full-Flow oil filter. Save on tires because Ford's I-beam suspension keeps front tires tracking true. In certified tests against pickups using independent front suspension, Ford front tires lasted up to 83% longer!

Stop in and drive a '62 Ford pickup today. It's built for Texas, built in Texas. Let us show you why Ford's full-time economy only starts with low price!

FAIRVIEW NEWS..

By MRS. ELMER JOINER

The news from out Fairview way begins on a sad note this Monday morning. The pastor for the last three and a half years, Rev. Doyle Combs, resigned Sunday morning, to accept the call of the Swenson Baptist Church in Stonewall County, to become effective March 1st. It is always with a great feeling of regret that a church sees a pastor leave, but if he feels that the Lord is leading him to other places, and to make a change, we can only hope for him and his family, that they will find folks in their new field of work, that loves them as we do.

Owing to the warm weather and every one being well, attendance is holding up well in church. One visitor, Rena Jo White, was in both services Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ray Rosenbaum, Pampa, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum.

Jimmy Wainscott spent Friday night with his sister's family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Peters and children, in Stamford.

Nancy and Penny Ford, and Dorothy Gray attended the football banquet in Hamlin on Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Penrod of Swenson, visited with the Flavel Holmes Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum visited in the Winson Gray home Friday night.

Since the Gray's children, Mr. and Mrs. Doyal Bills and Jana, were visiting again on their way home to Houston, several of their friends took the opportunity to visit with them and see the new daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Red Fowler, Hamlin, took supper with them Friday night. Saturday afternoon, Rebecca Ferguson and Bunny Patterson also of Hamlin, were visitors. The Bills returned home early Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Faulkenberry and Mr. and Mrs. Buck Joiner and children, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner, Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry went from church Sunday, to Snyder, to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Clois Henry and children. They reported the little sick grandson, that they went to see to be better, and they got back home in time for church again Sunday night.

Mrs. Henry reports that Miss Georgia Thornton, of Stamford, visited with her Thursday afternoon.

Rev. Doyle Combs and Winson Gray went to Anson Sunday afternoon to attend the Jones County Brotherhood Committee, which is working to erect signs at strategic points to advertise the other side of the brewery industry. Rev. Combs was chairman of this committee.

It was announced at church Sunday, by request of the Fairview Cemetery Association, that the cemetery will be burned off and other work done, this Thursday afternoon, February 22. All those interested in keeping this place beautiful are asked to be there and help.

Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray and Dorothy went to Amarillo last Wednesday and returned Thursday, where they visited with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Johnson, and little sons.

Ronald Joiner, Stamford, spent several days last week with his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Joiner, and sister Jeannie, came for him and spent Saturday and Saturday night. Joining them all for a visit Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. Runt McCoy and Larry.

At the last conference, the Fairview Church voted to again go into the Rural Church Achievement Program in 1962. The church has some good projects started, and feels like it can do some worth while things. This program is designed to help build the rural churches, and our church has been helped so much by it the past five years, that we have participated in it. Woodrow Goodwin was elected as General Chairman, and he will work out his committees to work with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gilley, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Jones visited with Mr. and Mrs. Flavel Holmes last Thursday night.

These taking dinner with the Goodwins Sunday were: Rev. and Mrs. Doyle Combs, Brenda, Cathy, Johnny and Sherri, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner. Calling Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wright and Melinda, Mr. and Mrs. Flavel Holmes and Bill Neville.

Family Night will be observed at the church next Thursday night, February 22, with a Washington's Birthday party. Plans are in the making for a good program and we invite all those that will to come be with us. Ladies are asked to bring cookies, drinks will be furnished. The time is 7:00 o'clock and the place is the Fairview Church.

Ask Amy
BY AMY ADAMS

ONE STEP DOWN CALLS FOR ANOTHER

Dear Amy:
I want you to know that I read your column every week. As a matter of fact, it is the first thing that I turn to when I read the paper, and I'm sure you can help me.

For three years I have been going with Louis who is now in his second year of college. I love this boy very much and he feels the same about me. He's very serious about life and just a good person all the way 'round.

My problem of course concerns him and his "roving" hands. When I say no, he'll stop, but every time we are together, I have the same problem.

What can I do? I love him and I don't want to lose him.

A.N.

Dear A.N.:
Anything past your hands is taboo. Regardless what he wants to do.

Stick to your guns. Have clean, wholesome fun. Or you stand to lose more than just Lou!

Dear Amy:
My boy friend has been acting strangely lately and I wondered why. I talked to a friend of his and he told me that one of my best friends was telling him all sorts of lies about me (for instance: she told him I had gone out with another boy and didn't get in until 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning). If I had done that, I would have had all my privileges taken away from me. I wouldn't have stayed out that late with anyone (not even him). That was just one lie she had told. How can I stop this?

I know he should trust me and I don't see why he believes her. She is known for her lying. I also asked his friend why he (my boy friend) believed her and he said, "Linda, if you caught her act, you would have almost believed her yourself."

Please help me out. I love Kenny. We are both 17 and seniors in school.

Linda

Dear Linda:
Put him wise to her lies and don't fret. If she is known for her lying, it won't take long for him to get to know, too.

Sit tight. She'll get an 'Emmy,' but you'll wind up with Kenny!

Dear Mrs. W.:
A boy who goes to college and holds down a job is working very hard to insure his future and probably has very little money and time to spend. What his intentions are is up to your daughter to find out.

A smart girl can see plenty in a boy like this. Don't discourage it!

Two great newspapers in Los Angeles recently ceased publication. The event was a shock to many people who regret to see any great institution pass from the American scene.

Yet, to publishers of small newspapers and to retailers in small cities, the suspension of the great metropolitan newspaper displayed evidence that people prefer to trade in local communities.

It was also proof that retail advertising in community newspapers is more economical and more effective than

County Agent Gives Methods To Control Weeds

A chemical known as "Endothol" has been doing an outstanding job killing such plants as wildrye, clover, chickweed, filaree, goathead, henbit, annual blue grass, little barley and pig weeds which invade home lawns, according to information this week from the County Agent, Kirby Clayton.

For best results, the plants should be sprayed while young and tender, says Clayton. More mature plants are difficult to control and in many cases should be mowed off and allowed to grow for about 4-5 days before applying control measures.

Endothol should be mixed with water at the rate of 7-10 Tablespoonful per gallon for spraying most lawn weeds. Stronger concentrations may be necessary on tougher plants. The addition of a spreader sticker to the solution sticks the herbicide to the plants and results in much better kills.

For further information on the use of this chemical, call your County Agent.

"I want the support of all Texas citizens in establishing fiscal responsibility in State government, and, at the same time, support in providing the protection and services our people have a right to expect from our prosperous State with an ever-expanding economy."

"I want and need every Texan's support— from business and industry, labor, education, the professions, government, farming and ranching, and all other segments of our social and economic life."

Speaker Turman added, "I will meet and visit personally with as many people as time, between now and the primary, will permit. I pledge diligence to duty, integrity of purpose, and honorable service with fairness to all if elected Lieutenant Governor."

They are the papers which carry news about neighborhood people, local schools, and unique local problems which a metropolitan newspaper could not handle.

To such community newspapers, the suburban people look for the latest shopping news, and when the community newspapers contain complete shopping information consumers do their shopping in the local shopping center rather than the nearby metropolis. Thus, apparently, out-of-town competition is a bogey that can be handily overcome with a readily available weapon—community newspaper advertising.

James Turman Begins Campaign For Lt. Governor

James A. (Jimmy) Turman of Fannin County, Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives, has begun his active campaign for Lieutenant Governor.

Speaker Turman said his decision to run for Lieutenant Governor was "based on the sincere belief that my record as a legislator and as presiding officer of the House qualifies me for the duties required of the Lieutenant Governor—to preside over the State Senate in a fair, effective and democratic manner and to help preserve the God-given personal and political rights and liberties of all our citizens."

AS IT LOOKS FROM HERE

By CONG. OMAR BURLESON

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Among the many measures occupying the attention of Congress is the proposal that the United States purchase $100 million of a $200 million United Nations bond issue.

When this idea was advanced last December, I warned our officials that it would have rough sledding in the Congress. This certainly appears to be the case.

It has always seemed advisable to offer alternatives to that which one opposes, if an alternative is available. In this instance, I think there are alternatives.

It was suggested to our top officials that since more than 80 of the 104 countries of the United Nations belong to the World Bank, that the World Bank might either underwrite or directly purchase United Nations bonds. It was pointed out that the Soviet Union and the Soviet bloc nations do not belong to the World Bank or any other international lending agency. The answer to this is that the Communist Nations have already said they would not buy any of the bonds any way.

It was then pointed out that the going rate of interest of the World Bank was 5 1/4 per cent, and that the issue of the United Nations bonds would carry only 2 per cent. The answer here, again, is that nations belonging to the World Bank would be borrowing their own money or having their own bonds underwritten.

There are many private foundations in this Country which play a leading role in supporting the United Nations. It is, therefore, reasonable to expect that if these bonds were underwritten by one of the international lending institutions such as the World Bank, that several of the very wealthy foundations could be expected to invest in them.

It simply does not make sense that the United States Government should borrow money at the going rate of 3 per cent and invest the taxpayers' money in 2 per cent bonds to finance the United Nations.

Another issue which will soon have to be determined by the Congress is that of raising The Finance Committees of the limit on the public debt, both the House and the Senate are going to take a very careful look at the necessity for increasing the ceiling.

As a sidelight of this proposal, there appear to be some interesting statistics. During the past 15 years, or since World War II, the Federal Debt has increased about 12 percent. By comparison, corporate debt has risen 210 per cent and State and local debt has risen 340 per cent. Individual debts have increased over-all by a staggering 375 per cent. All this is related to what is commonly referred to by the economists as the gross national product. This simply means the gross volume of business transacted in the entire country.

Area Merchant Admits To Horse & Buggy Store

Bernard Buie of Buie's in Stamford states "We still run a horse and buggy store and we like to have our customers know they have come to an old fashioned country store. We haven't done away with any frills—we just never had em. Consequently we sell furniture, pianos, Farmall tractors or mattresses for less. For the next two weeks we are conducting a disposal of choice merchandise at extreme discounts. We don't call it a sale, we just are discounting the already low overhead prices you can find at plain old Buie's any week.

We have always been a horse and buggy store from the time when lots of families came to town on Saturday in a wagon. In those days we were a plain country store selling horse collars, wash tubs, oil stoves and steel wheeled Farmalls. We knew then as you know, that the customer pays for fancy frills. Never in our 35 years have we been horse and buggy than right now; never have we been more shorn of non essentials, white kid gloves and dream wrapping papers. We feel our whole store is bustin out with bargains, but you won't find it bustin out with beauty. Our merchandise is just stacked up and priced right — why not come in and look around with us at a bunch of plain high quality, unvarnished bargains. Buie's have it in stock if you can help us find it."

TELEPHONE TALK

by Roy Eury, Manager

SPECIAL KIND OF LANGUAGE

Ever occur to you how often on the telephone you say "Thanks for Calling" and I'll Call You Back" . . . or "Give Me A Ring?" Probably not, for these like many other expressions we use almost every day have become as commonplace to us as "Good Morning" or "How Are You?"

When we say "Thanks for Calling," for example, we seldom stop and consider the wonderful convenience of just being able to talk to a friend or relative by phone—at any time of the day or night. And when we ask someone to "give us a ring," we rarely think of the vast amount of telephone equipment needed to bring the voices we want to hear into our homes from almost anywhere in the world.

Telephoning has become such a habit in our every day living that we take it for granted. So it's only natural that telephone expressions have become part of our everyday language.

SHOPPING BY PHONE

I have a neighbor who has three small children, all of them under five years of age. As most of you mothers can appreciate, raising a lively young family is quite a chore. My neighbor's three youngsters keep her pretty well tied up, too. "How do you do it?" I asked her the other day. "Of all people, you should know," she replied. And then she started a commercial. I should confess it was music to my ears.

"When you have to do everything for three small children, it's not easy to leave the house even for essential shopping," she said. "I've really appreciated our telephone. I can do all my shopping and visiting in a matter of minutes without ever leaving the house."

"I couldn't have done a better job if I had written the script myself," I told her.

Shopping by phone saves wear and tear on tires and shoe leather—and people—and will give you more time to do other things that crowd your busy day. Why not try it?

TELEPHONE OFF THE HOOK

It happens two times a day in Hamlin. That's how many receivers are left off the hook everyday. When this happens, it blocks all incoming calls. And on a party line, it puts the other phones out of service. To make sure no one misses important calls, how about telling the children in your family to be sure they replace the receiver after talking?

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

FARM SPECIALIST STRESSES NEED FOR GOOD FARM RECORDS

College Station—Good farm records are essential for a successful operation, says Cecil Parker, extension farm management specialist. Records provide the proof of past performance, and they are an indication of the potential of a given farm, farm manager and the technology used.

Proper records will allow the farmer to compare one enterprise with another and they are very important when the farmer wants to combine enterprises. An analysis of a good set of records will point out the strong and weak points of the business, and they are also handy to have around when it comes time to file income tax.

establishing such a Department of Government.

JUST A THOUGHT: Shoulders which carry their responsibilities have no room on them for a chip.

The type of record book or system you use depends on what you want your records to do for you, says Parker. The minimum record should include an inventory of land, buildings, equipment, livestock and supplies; all expenses grouped by kind; all income received; land use and production of crops and livestock; and a place to summarize the year's operation. The more details the record shows the more valuable it will be.

Parker says this is a good time to get your records for 1962 started, and it is also a good time to study last year's records to determine if any changes need to be made.

It is easier to keep good records if you have a special place to work. Entries should be made as soon as they occur or as soon thereafter as possible, Parker advises.

If you need help in setting up your records or in analyzing your old one, see your local extension agent.

DIPHTHERIA CASES GAIN IN TEXAS DURING LAST 2 YEARS

Following two decades of fairly steady decline—except for brief periods—diphtheria has shown a slight increase in the past two years.

In 1961, there were 239 cases of diphtheria in Texas compared to 239 cases in 1960 and only 163 cases in 1959. The John Braswell.

Mr. Novel Baize preached at the Church of Christ Sunday morning. His son, Wayne, accompanied him.

Mrs. Spencer Baize, chairman of the Tuxedo March of Dimes, reports that $84.15 was contributed Monday night at the community center, even more than was given last year. For this, we are very proud.

Also a real good musical program and good old fellowship was enjoyed by a nice crowd of neighbors and friends. Gayle Baize had charge of the music and had a real good group of musicians there who furnished good string music and singing.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Newman and Melinda honored his parents in their home Sunday with a dinner on their 49th anniversary. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Royce Rasco of Pampa and Mrs. Jerry Pomanke of Truskett and their families, and Mrs. Jerry Newman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Allison of Rule.

Mrs. Fred Osment honored her 4 year old daughter, Lesia, with a birthday party on Saturday, February 10th at her home. There was a pretty heart shaped cake with pink roses and a doll on it, pink punch served to 13 children and their mothers. Favors were pink candy hearts.

Mr. Osment and Lesia went to Denver City Tuesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Jess Treadwell and family. They returned home Wednesday.

same trend is followed in the death column of the disease.

Prior to 1960 there had been a steady decline in the number of fatalities in Texas attributable to diphtheria—in 1959 there were only seven.

However, the figure jumped to 20 deaths during 1960. The latest figures available for the first nine months of 1961 indicate that there were 15 deaths through the end of September.

Two sad facts highlight these cases. First—most deaths occur among children under nine years of age. Second—most cases, and almost all deaths, of diphtheria could be prevented by early immunization with diphtheria toxoid.

Texas outbreaks during the past two years have been characterized by the fact that the families involved had not been properly immunized or had received no protection whatsoever.

Diphtheria used to claim a high toll of victims years ago, and a higher percentage died.

After diphtheria immunization became fairly common, the incidence of the disease dropped off to the low figure in 1959.

Physicians generally inoculate infants with a combined triple vaccine composed of diphtheria and tetanus toxoids and pertussis vaccine ensuring protection against all three diseases.

Transmission is made by person-to-person contact with a patient or carrier or with articles soiled with discharges of such persons. The diphtheria organism is contained in discharges and secretions from mucous surfaces of the nose, pharynx and nasopharynx.

The disease strikes most often in the fall and winter months and complications involving the heart and occasionally occur.

A physician should be consulted for further information about immunization. (A weekly feature from Public Health Education Division, Texas State Department of Health.)

REACHING NEW Heights

Man has explored most of the earth, and has now set out to conquer space.

While achieving these marvelous works, let us not forget our creator.

"When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; what is man that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him? For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour. Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet..."

ATTEND CHURCH SUNDAY

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

A man once said, "I can't see the wind but I can hoist a sail". The same is true of the rural electric systems of the state. You can't see the kilowatts but you can see the myriad things the pulsating current does, from pumping water to frying eggs. They are efficient, dependable electric systems owned by the members they serve. They were built to serve areas that had no electricity. Often the distances were great and the problems were many but it takes a rough sea to make a good sailor. With a wealth of experience and know how, with the modern tools and techniques, with advanced methods and materials, the rural electric of Texas are accomplishing miracles every day, building a brighter tomorrow.

OLD GLORY NEWS..

By SHARON LEVERETT

V. R. Leverett and Tom Pritchard attended a district interscholastic planning meeting at Hawley on Wednesday night.

The Old Glory Boy's and Girl's Basketball teams played two home games last week. On Tuesday night they welcomed Noodle and won 48-33; boys 76-60; both Old Glory. By winning the game, the boys were tied for fourth place in the district but they lost the play-off Round Robin by the toss of a coin.

On Thursday night to a capacity crowd, the teams played their last home game of the season and the last game for the senior boys with Hawley. The games were thrilling even though the boys lost 78 to 40. The girls won 49-37.

The Junior Class sponsored a pancake supper Thursday night prior to the Hawley game. The class members and sponsor, Joe Wilson, were assisted by the mothers of the class members in actually preparing and serving the food. The group appreciated all patrons who supported the supper. Also appreciated the Hawley teams who came in after the games to eat.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Mathews were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loye Zane Garner, Sunday. Mr. Mathews filled the pulpit at the local Church of Christ at both services. Miss Virgiliana Johnson was also guest of the Garners.

Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Sawyers and Donnice visited with the parents of Mrs. Sawyers at Haskell, Sunday.

Each year Hamlin sends two girls to the state meeting and this year Mary Smith will go to receive her state FHA degree. Our two delegates this year will be Gloria Jenkins and Debbie Rountree. The girls will be accompanied by Mrs. Carter.

Among the glitter of lights and the rustle of dresses, Leona Brinegar was crowned Football Sweetheart, and Rayford Williams was crowned Football Hero last Friday night at the annual Pied Piper football banquet.

Nancy Carter served as Mistress of ceremonies for the royal affair. Lanny Ford, one of our tri-captains, brought the invocation, and Barry Chesier welcomed all the guests. Stanley Austin, a tri-captain, gave the response to the welcome. La Verne Williams crowned Rayford and Jimmy Cooper, another captain, crowned the Football Sweetheart.

Entertainment was by the stage band under the direction of Mr. Jones.

Guest speaker was Chuck Moser, athletic director for Abilene Public Schools.

Velta Hastings presented Miss Mitchell a gift in behalf of the pep squad and Jerry Duncan presented the coaches gifts. Sunny Teague presented Mr. Jones with a gift from the majorettes.

The singing of the Piper song ended the 1961-62 Pied Piper football banquet.

Cliff House in Stamford. The theme of the evening was Southern and appropriate decorations were featured. Guests entered under an archway with white magnolia blooms entwined. Baskets of white gladioli flanked white picket fences. Place cards featured a facsimile of a cotton boll. Joe Marshall of A.C.C. was featured as guest speaker.

What size Chevrolet do you want to save money on?

CHEVROLET IMPALA Room, refinement and riding comfort. Foreground, the Impala Sport Sedan.

CORVAIR MONZA Sports Car spice without a sports car price. At rear is the Monza Club Coupe.

CHEVY II NOVA The frisky family-sized Chevrolet with a low, low price tag. Above right, Nova Sport Coupe.

Like your driving sporty, with quicksilver steering, flat-as-a-pancake cornering, sure-footed traction? Then a Corvair Monza's for you.

Or maybe the new-size Chevy II is more to your liking. Built for big families and still slips neatly into small parking places. And, with this, the kind of ingenious engineering (new easy-riding Mono-Plate rear springs, for example) that won this year's coveted Car Life Magazine Award for Engineering Excellence.

But say you want to go all out—to get the full treatment in space, spirit and splendor. Then there's nothing like a Jet-smooth Chevrolet. Makes paying more pointless.

So size 'em up—then save it up—at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Draft Quota For Texas Set

AUSTIN—The state quota for Texas draft boards in March calls for 228 men. Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director announced Tuesday.

The state's March call of 228 compares with a quota of 296 for February and 440 for January. The March call is the state's share of a national call of 6,000 men, all for the Army. Colonel Schwartz also announced that local boards would send 650 men for pre-induction physical and mental examinations.
